| Support | We offer a range of support services to ensure learners are safe and environments are conducive to learning. Where specific learning resources are required, will endeavour to provide access, to ensure learners are not disadvantaged in their learning. Assistance includes the following support: Training and Vocational Support Students may receive training or vocational support from the VET Coordinator or other qualified person. The VET Coordinator monitors the student's progress and intervenes to provide support or support as appropriate, and where needed refers the student on to other qualified person, depending on the nature of the problem. Personal Support Any student showing signs of distress or discomfort is to be approached by the trainer and offer support. Support may take the form of advice, or other qualified person, depending on the nature of the problem. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People Courses are developed to improve educational outcomes and employment opportunities for Aboriginal peoples. Some courses can be delivered in a local community. The VET Coordinator endeavours to help the participant to get started, and provide them with advice and support while working through the course, including; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • advice about courses which might be right for the participant • help with the enrolment procedure as well as information about how to contact the Aboriginal Student Support Officer • information about support services such as literacy and numeracy programs. Language, Literacy and Numeracy Support Students needing language, literacy and Numeracy (LLN) support are identified on application. In most cases, LLN support can be provided. Where only a low level of support is needed, we may arrange for the student to receive extra-curricula assistance from the trainer or other staff member. Where extensive support is needed, specialised LLN classes may be set up. This will attract a fee. Where an applicant's LLN deficiency will clearly inhibit achievement of learning outcomes and the applicant refuses LLN support, enrolment may be declined. |
